INTRODUCTION

Flashing, pop-like imagery; visual and auditory narrations that explicitly touch upon sex, politics and social relations; vibrant installations that extend into three dimensions the artist's fantastical animation world - these are but cornerstones of Wong Ping's (b. 1984, Hong Kong) practice that combines the crass and the colourful to mount a discourse around repressed sexuality, personal sentiments and political limitations. Hong Kong born and raised, Wong Ping discusses his observations of society, from teenage to adulthood, using a visual language that sits on the border of shocking and amusing.

Running throughout Wong Ping's animation work is the concept of control or limitation. In a sexual sense, Wong introduces the poles of desire and obsession - animating, illustrating and describing acts or scenarios that are brutally honest, or indeed, compose our personal, 'evil' shame. In 'Doggy Love' (2015), for example, Ping tells the story of a repressed male teenager who becomes crazy about a girl who has breasts on her back. The animation follows his incapacity to control himself sexually till they fall in love and he ultimately understands the concept of the heart. On the opposite side, 'Jungle of Desire' (2015) follows a grown man's self-loathing as he is incapable to fulfill his wife sexually, and who ultimately succumbs to at-home prostitution and is taken advantage of by a cop. Depressed and incapable, he speaks of taking to the hills and indeed his own life. Herein one starts to understand that despite the flashing, bright-coloured imagery, there lies a darker undertone to Wong's animation. 'The Other Side' (2015), commissioned by M+, is a two-channel installation that uses the story of a man's reluctant birth, key junctures in his life, and his attempt to reenter his mother's womb, as a metaphor for the process of immigration.

Indeed, beyond the film's pop-like appearance, the animation seems to reflect on the changing status quo of Hong Kong and to present a somewhat dystopian outlook. Such humour laced with weariness is also found in further films such as 'An Emo Nose' (2016) that tells the story of a man's heart-shaped nose that moves away in distance from his face with every negative thought. Akin to Pinocchio's 'lying nose', the man starts off as one with his friend: socialising, enjoying the small things in life from watching movies to meeting women. The nose moves away, however, with every damaging thought till the point where the narrator can no longer see it, just vicarously smells and thereby 'lives' through it, leaving him behind to be a social outcast or 'emo'.

Ultimately, however, Wong's animations are not meant to be discouraging. They are happy, in a twisted yet realistic way, despite their fantastical scenarios and appearances. They also provide through their rawness a sense of comfort in that even our deepest and most private sentiments or acts are shared by others. In this way, Wong's work is liberating – a cathartic twist on the trials rooted in daily life.

As one of Hong Kong's most exciting emerging artists, Wong Ping has been commissioned to create works by significant institutions including ICA Miami, Kunsthalle Basel, Guggenheim, M+ and NOWNESS. He was awarded Camden Arts Centre Emerging Arts Prize at Frieze, Huayu Youth Award Jury Prize, Young Artist Award by Hong Kong Arts Development Awards and more. He has held solo exhibitions at major institutions including Pompidou Center, ICA Miami, Camden Arts Centre, Kunsthalle Basel; and participated significant exhibitions internationally at MUDAM Luxembourg, OGR Torino, Guggenheim Museum, New Museum Triennial, Ural Industrial Biennial, amongst others. Wong's work is held in several permanent collections including M+, Hong Kong, KADIST, Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York MoCa Busan, amongst others. His animation films have been presented at numerous film festivals worldwide, including the famous Film Festival Rotterdam, Sundance Film Festival, London Short Film Festival, and Kino der Kunst. In 2019, his film 'Wong Ping's Fables 1' was the winner of The Ammodo Tiger Short Competition at the International Film Festival Rotterdam, who gave a special mention to its sequel 'Wong Ping's Fables 2' in the following year.

黃炳的動畫並非意在灌輸一種頓挫，而是透過奇想中的情節勾勒在現實生活苦中作樂的「樂」：我們彼此在作品裡意外找到共鳴，個人淵深情緒的純粹也就帶來一種喜出望外的舒緩。如此一來，黃炳的作品可謂從生活中的精神解放和淨化。

Kiang Malingue, Hong Kong
25.03 - 04.05.24

Kiang Malingue presents “anus whisper”, an exhibition of recent installations, sculptures, and films by Wong Ping. Inspired by the experience of paracusia, Crumbing Earwax, Georges Bataille’s The Solar Anus, and a tête-à-tête with a stranger in bed in the afternoon, the sizeable artworks thematically and formally correspond to one another, exploring the aesthetic meaning(-lessness) of bullshit, expanding Wong’s curious body of art that revolves around circular narratives and motifs.

The titular anus whisper (2024) departs from the erotic-topological story of Crumbing Earwax (2022), incorporating an unprecedented portion of newly filmed footage in the animated story: while fart sounds are generally commonly assumed to be natural, they are in fact the product of the protagonist’s laborious efforts to improvise sounds as people fart. In anus whisper, he is seen conversing in bed with a stranger before heading to work; the newly found experience of anal auditory hallucinations reminds him of an irreconcilable relationship with another stranger. Interwoven into Wong’s story is Bataille’s early surrealist text The Solar Anus (1931), repeatedly and freely parodied in the film that confounds both the senses, and the dichotomy between the cephalic and the sexual-intestinal—the anus is taken as a mouth through which whispers are emitted, and words are in turn transformed into abject things. Numerous lines from Bataille’s text, such as “Disasters, revolutions, and volcanoes do not make love with the stars,” serpentine and metamorphose in the film. In addition, the possibility of becoming one’s lover as suggested by the French author (“Without knowing it, he suffers from the mental darkness that keeps him from screaming that he himself is the girl who forgets his presence while shuddering in his arms.”) finds resonance in anus whisper’s topological confusion of bodily cavities and canals, and of love, fetishism, aversion and apathy.

Wong often acts as the sole voice-over narrator for many of his videos and animations, telling stories about interpersonal connections and relationships. For the present exhibition, Wong fosters interactions and collaborations in the creative process: working with artists, musicians, and professionals from different backgrounds, Wong invites actors to perform on and off screen, delivering dialogues that are at once profound, passionate and ambiguous. The new sculpture 《 》*(2024) also occasions another collaboration: Wong invites a musician to improvise with a trumpet inside the giant asshole sculpture at the opening of the exhibition, echoing the story of anus whisper.

Also included in the exhibition is the three-channel video installation Crumbing Earwax (2022) and blah-blah-blah (2022); the latter employs earwax fired into a copper ear sculpture to produce paracusia sounds reminiscent of church bells. After the exhibition of “Your Silent Neighbor” at the New Museum in 2021, the two monumental pieces were commissioned for the exhibition “Earwax” at Times Art Center Berlin in 2022, demonstrating Wong’s expanding interest in inner experience—channeled by the eyes, ears, mouths, noses, skins, and genitalia. Towards the end of anus whisper, Wong declares after Bataille that “earwax is the parody of tolls,” contemplating the excess that is the negligible, abject things such as earwax, auditory hallucinations, filth, or shit talk out of an asshole. The time has come to restore power to the filth being watched.

Wong Ping: edging

Solo Exhibition
個展

Museum of Applied Arts (MAK), Vienna, Austria
25.10.23 - 31.03.24

With WONG PING. edging, the MAK is presenting the first solo exhibition in Austria of one of the most aspiring and eccentric contemporary artists. In his trenchant short films that intertwine personal and fictional stories Wong Ping (* 1984 in Hong Kong) uses sexual desire and suppressed fantasies as metaphors for larger social issues. In a setting created especially for the new exhibition space MAK Contemporary, the artist is presenting four of his latest animated films.

Wrapped in colorful pop language and cute aesthetics, Wong Ping addresses our deepest desires, suppressed fantasies or obscenities, paired with existential and political themes. Many of his stories reflect the atmosphere of our globalized and digitized society in the 21st century. “Sex is only the language, not the message,” says Wong Ping about his work, which takes a light-hearted, humorous, and accessible approach to reveal uncomfortable and shameful truths about society.

Be it isolation, social pressure, political tensions, clashing ideologies, fear of intimacy, failure or the loss of individual freedoms, Wong Ping provides razor- sharp criticism and breaks down the contradictions and complexities of contemporary society in an unusual way. With disarming honesty, always on the edge between shock and humor, he encourages visitors to rethink ingrained standards of decency.

Wong Ping is an artistic autodidact. In 2005, he graduated in Multimedia Design from Curtin University in Perth (Australia) and subsequently worked in post-production at a television station in Hong Kong and at Cartoon Network.

His experimenting with software, his storytelling talent, and his fondness of the bizarre, led Wong to start processing his daily experiences and observations in Hong Kong in short animated videos, which he uploaded to Vimeo. In 2014, he founded what he called the “Wong Ping Animation Lab.”

Besides its sexual connotation, the exhibition title edging—the controlled delay of climax—can be read as a metaphor for the precarious situation in which Hong Kong finds itself politically and socially. As a former British colony, it was returned to China in 1997 under the slogan “one country, two systems,” promising the region a high degree of autonomy and democracy. Concerns about the erosion of these freedoms and fears about the loss of the way of life and civil rights due to Beijing’s increasing influence have triggered widespread protests in Hong Kong in recent years.

Wong’s distinctive visual language is particularly effective when it comes to concealing social taboos loaded with observations about suppressed sexuality, social relationships, political constraints, and cultural etiquette. His works are filled with dark humor and provocative images and challenge viewers to question their own norms and conventions. His characteristic flat, round animation style with color gradients is reminiscent of the 8-bit video game aesthetics and the early internet as well as MTV commercials from the 1980s and 1990s.

At MAK Contemporary, visitors can expect a spatial installation especially designed by the artist as usable setting for his scenography of animation films. The dimmed room is staged with a ceiling installation of colored light. A long studded floor leads to a round seating platform, the central anchor point of the installation, from which the four video works—Wong Ping’s Fables 1 (2018), Wong Ping’s Fables 2 (2019), Sorry for the Late Reply (2021), and Who’s the Daddy (2017)—are consecutively screened as large-format projections (duration between 9 and 15 minutes).

The key visual designed by the artist for the exhibition (for posters in the city and online) shows a figure with a mask, balancing on a narrow beam with studs, trying to bend a metal rod—an image, that like the colors and materials chosen by the artist is meant to match the potentially uneasy feeling evoked by the term “edging.”

The Seoul Museum of Art (SeMA), under the directorship of Choi Eunju, presents Keep Calm and Give a Shit, an exhibition of paintings and animations by four talented up-and-coming artists: Hun Kyu Kim, SOON. EASY, Tala Madani, and Wong Ping.

Keep Calm and Give a Shit explores, via sharp humor, comic characters and allegorical imagery, pressing international issues including the war in Ukraine, the political climate in Hong Kong, the COVID-19 pandemic, and the pervasive influence of the media.

The exhibition asks visitors to reject the superficial consumption of overwhelming information and images, and instead to appreciate the satirical narratives the artists have created, prompting reflection on our daily lives.

The exhibition's Korean title, "쉴" (the Korean equivalent of "Shh!"), prompts a moment of quiet reflection in which to actively appreciate and contemplate the stories hidden within the works exhibited. The English title, "Keep Calm and Give a Shit," riffs on the infamous unused World War II poster slogan "Keep Calm and Carry On," highlighting the significance, even amidst a chaotic world, of maintaining composure and directing our attention to matters of importance.

In an era where our experiences and time have been overshadowed by the superficial consumption of images and information, the art we need today is that which triggers a shift in consciousness and inspires novel ideas, rather than providing mere escape or temporary relief.

Visitors deepen their sensitivity and forge connections with the present through artworks that cleverly combine cute imagery with acute humor and incisive satire.

Responding to the artists' diverse narratives, visitors become storytellers themselves, weaving tales which resonate with their own interests and preferences. This exhibition, held in the welcoming and community-oriented environment of Buk-Seoul Museum of Art, aims to foster familiarity with art and actively engage the public in its appreciation.

Wong Ping is one of the most spirited artists to have emerged in the past decade. He is known for his colourful, playfully-intimate animation style that tells tantalizing tales of contemporary Hong Kong life. Boldly located in the Gallery foyer, the newly-commissioned installation 'puberty' draws on Wong's trademark humor and fascination with how human connections are shaped within technologically mediated worlds where reality and fantasy blur in the strangest and most unsettling of ways.

As compelling as it is ambiguous, we can approach puberty in many ways. Taking the title at face value, the work could be the face of puberty: a notoriously strange and challenging period in life. The eyes might represent fan-like connections to the icons the adolescent is using to fashion an identity. Tired and bloodshot from obsessively tracking the object of their desire the eyes also animate a nose that gently flaps in their breeze, perhaps picking up a scent of longing too. And a tongue pokes out from a mouth that is desperately trying to connect with a lost tooth, something they once had and are missing and now must seek in the visions of others. Demonstrating that the personal is always complicatedly social, 'puberty' is born from Wong's awareness that how we navigate our frameworks of desire – seeking in others what we lack in ourselves – needs continual negotiation.

The exhibition features Wong Ping's latest video animation Sorry for the late reply (2021), commissioned by New Museum, New York; the renowned series Wong Ping's Fables (2018-2019); and two earlier works An Emo Nose (2015) and The Other Side (2015).

Through animations, sculptures and installations, Wong Ping tells stories that challenge our habitual ideas of human desire, loneliness, shame and repressed sexuality.

Wong's animations are rendered in a bright aesthetic reminiscent of early video games. This light-hearted, humorous, and accessible visual language helps to diffuse lewd and offbeat stories that explore dark corners of human nature, in which protagonists often experience deep psychological issues, as well as simultaneously disguising meditations on larger societal structures such as immigration, social relations, economic anxieties, and morality.

As a Hong Kong native, Wong's observations of the city's residents' daily lives and mindsets are a central element in his works, where he presents reflections on the changing social and economic environment in the region, with emphasis on Hong Kong's tense relations with mainland China. In the context of a community under siege, specifically wherein political dissent has become tantamount to criminal behavior, the artist's playfully subversive practice is as important, powerful and progressive as any.

Wong's work creates a hallucinatory, surreal, and frightening image of contemporary life. In describing his practice, he points to his favorite song by The Velvet Underground and its lines, "I'll be your mirror/Reflect what you are, in case you don't know".

Wong Ping: Your Silent Neighbor
黃炳: 你的沈默鄰居

Solo Exhibition
個人展覽

New Museum, New York, U.S.A.

Over the past ten years, Wong Ping has developed a highly personal, self-taught style of animation to craft tales of individual desire, societal pressure, and political upheaval. Before his colorful and sometimes disturbing stories of life in Hong Kong received mainstream attention from the art world, the artist worked in television broadcasting and commercial animation. Although his videos may at first recall children's cartoons, Wong's work emerges from his own written stories and journals, revealing the aspirations and anxieties of everyday residents of Hong Kong through surreal narratives and a bizarre cast of anthropomorphic characters.

Filling the Museum's Third Floor galleries, the solo exhibition "Your Silent Neighbor" featured a new animation film Sorry for the late reply (2021), which was commissioned for this exhibition by New Museum, as well as a selection of earlier works by Wong from across his experimental oeuvre, including Jungle of Desire (2015), a video that tells the story of a homemaker turned sex worker whose exchanges with her police-officer client are voyeuristically observed by her husband.

Other earlier works in the show included, Who's the Daddy? (2017), a tale of love and parenthood in the digital age; and Wong Ping's Fables 2 (2019), the second of Wong's takes on traditional fairy tales in which a variety of creatures learn valuable lessons about living in the complex sociopolitical landscape of contemporary Hong Kong. The first of Wong's Fables premiered in the New Museum's "2018 Triennial: Songs for Sabotage." The presentation included the debut of a new video by the artist commissioned for the exhibition.

The solo exhibition was curated by Gary Carrion-Murayari, Kraus Family Curator, with Francesca Altamura, former Curatorial Assistant, and was accompanied by a fully illustrated catalogue, the artist's first, with an essay by Carrion-Murayari; an interview with the artist conducted by Tobias Berger of Tai Kwun Centre for Heritage and Arts, Hong Kong; and a special contribution by artist David Horvitz.

I went to see a fortune teller/psychic one day, I told her I don't know what to do in the coming exhibition in Miami. I asked her to give me a show title. "Huh? I normally help come up with a lucky company name. So weird to think of an exhibition title...give me one day please" she said. I said no, give me now.

She asked what do I do. I tried to give her some direction since she looks a bit lost. "Mostly erotic and sexual." She grabbed my hand hard said "Don't say such dirty thing". She shouted after about 20 seconds later, erotic is such a modern thing for me (she's about 70). She jotted down "Modern" on a paper. I was like HUH? How did you come up with that but I love it.

She asked what I wanted to tell in the new work. I said "I wouldn't come to see you if I know!!" At the same time, police was firing blue water cannon in the protest a few blocks away from this psychic booth. So I said "about Shower". She shouted again and said "Let's called it 'the modern way to shower'". "What the hell" I said. We hugged for seconds when she checked her note and found out this title is a good luck one. She was so nice to give a palm and face reading after. "Stay away from alcohols. It makes you dumb". I think she's right.

Heart Digger

Solo Exhibition
個人展覽

Camden Arts Centre, London, UK

Wong Ping creates digital and sculptural works that reveal very human, often universal fantasies, through absurd narratives. Drawing from his own social encounters, he elaborates his stories into dark humorous tales that touch on political and cultural anxieties. Digitally rendered in a seductive technicolour language, they recall the modernism of Fernand Leger, the pop language of Tom Wesselman or Allen Jones, and the design aesthetic of The Memphis Group and early 1980s video games. These simple but seductive animations also disguise a deeper critique of technology.

Wong Ping is the inaugural recipient of Camden Art Centre's new Emerging Artist Prize (2018). Camden Arts Centre's Emerging Artist Prize was established in 2018 as part of the Centre's commitment to nurturing and celebrating the most innovative artists of the moment, who have yet to receive the recognition their work deserves. The prize awards an artist exhibiting in the Focus section of Frieze London with an exhibition at Camden Art Centre.

'Heart Digger' was presented across two venues, Camden Arts Centre and Cork Street, Mayfair. The Cork Street exhibition included new inflatable sculptures, video installations, and two recent works – 'Fables 1' (2018) and 'Fables 2' (2019). Part of an ongoing series, these films are morality tales re-written for our dystopian age – modern day Aesop's Fables. Wong's creatures, including a convicted capitalist cow, a three-headed homicidal rabbit, and a telepathic tree, become the focal points of subversive domestic fantasies, holding a mirror to our own humanity.

The world we live in is twisted. Sexist, ageist, consumerist, post-factual, warmongering, it is all of these things and more. Against this backdrop, we regularly and voyeuristically survey others while we let them watch us via Facebook. We Instagram. We Tinder. We Google. We reveal where we are at any moment, what we've eaten, what books we are reading, designating preferences with a thumbs up, with a heart, by swiping right. We scroll and consume ceaseless streams of images and information.

Enter Wong Ping. The Hong Kong native came of age at the dawn of the internet. He didn't train as an artist, but studied design. He wrote for years, and then began drawing his stories as animations late at night after his day job at a local television studio. There he worked in postproduction, editing recorded images for broadcast—digitally removing, for example, the safety cables on a falling stunt actor in a crime drama, or replacing the exposed breasts of a show's female lead with those of a body double. It was a crash course in the media, in digital technology—and in hypocrisy.

The artist points out that what he makes "isn't very proper animation, as you can see. It's very simple stuff." Despite signing his productions "Wong Ping Animation Lab" (to come across as more professional, he says), he executes nearly every aspect himself, from his home. He writes the scripts, draws the animations on his computer, creates the music, and often also narrates the voice-overs in his own deadpan Cantonese. After producing a few animations for a friend's band and putting them online, interest in his work surged, encouraging him to create and upload more videos, leading to a Hong Kong institutional commission and, soon enough, commercial gallery representation.

What Wong Ping sees as the "simplicity" of his videos—for instance the candy-colored, pixelated approximations of bodies, recalling digitized Legos or 1980s computer games—is what lends them their particularity and appeal. They are both charmingly childlike and graphically explicit, their cartoon forms speaking to our contemporary condition with its many pathologies and discontents. Powerlessness, alienation, exploitation, and misogyny all make an appearance. These are tragic, pathetic, darkly humorous portraits of our time.

Critic Stephanie Bailey rightly said of Wong Ping's work that it aims to make "individual desires, experiences, and thoughts public... as part of a perversely relatable collective subconscious." Indeed, so much of what the artist writes and then animates is informed by the scenes he witnesses around him, articles he reads, stories he overhears. Yet his approach to portraying the state of the world is not literal; otherwise, he notes, "You might as well just watch the news."

For instance, the popular "slow food" and "slow living" trends incited one of Wong Ping's earliest artworks, Slow Sex (2013), an animated lesson on the dangers of rushing copulation. A random thought sparked by a common Cantonese expression informed Doggy Love (2015), in which a teenage boy first mocks, and then falls for, a girl who has breasts on her back. An article about police exploitation of prostitutes inspired Jungle of Desire (2015), in which an impotent male antihero—an animator, as it happens—allows his sexually frustrated wife to prostitute herself while he watches from the closet, becoming obsessed with a corrupt cop who affords his wife "the perfect orgasm." The creepy, patriarchal lyrics of a 1980s children's song partly inspired Who's the Daddy (2017), which centers on a bodybuilding atheist who unpacks his relationship to power by recounting childhood memories of being ordered to "passionately kiss his father," and his submission to a Christian woman staunchly opposed to premarital sex, but with a predilection for fisting and decidedly bizarre ideas about atonement. Observing an elderly man in his neighborhood mournfully trashing a bag full of VHS porn tapes led to Dear, can I give you a hand? (2018).

The aged, toothless protagonist in the animation grapples with the death of his wife, the technological obsolescence of his video collection, desire for his daughter-in-law, and alienation in the digital age. Timid these stories are not.

In his latest videos, Wong Ping turns to the likes of the Grimm Brothers and Aesop's fables for inspiration: "I want to write a kind of Wong Ping's Fables for the Modern Age." These morality tales for children, populated by animal characters, explore everything from the self-loathing generated by impossible beauty standards to the perils of self-righteousness. The artist's latest fable, the second in what he hopes will be an ongoing series, was commissioned for this exhibition, his first major institutional solo show, and premieres at Kunsthalle Basel.

Here, the non-chronological survey of new and recent videos is presented in specially conceived environments that lend dimensionality to the animations' characters and themes. Opening the exhibition, Dear, can I give you a hand? screens on LED panels positioned to form a radiant monolith. It is surrounded by The Ha Ha Ha Online Cemetery Limited (2019), thousands of golden-toothed plastic wind-up toys—an excessive multiplication of the protagonist's late wife's prized gold dentures. The second room features Bestiality rider R, Bestiality rider A, and Bestiality rider T (all 2019), three child-size male mannequins dressed in colorful rat costumes mounted on springs so as to resemble freaky children's playground toys. Just as life's trials become fodder for the artist's videos, real-life events inspired this installation: Wong Ping's home was invaded by a rat while he prepared for this show. Costumed and domesticated, the rats in this strange installation sublimate the artist's terror and annoyance at the intrusive rodent.

In the room that follows, in which he presents Jungle of Desire, Wong Ping covers the floor with fuzzy purple carpet and a hundred or so Chinese "lucky cats," their ever-moving paws sculpted into penises with multicolored heads. For the fourth room, which presents Slow Sex, Doggy Love, and Who's the Daddy, a trio of films in which the assorted penises of the videos' respective protagonists play a starring role, the artist conceived BONER (2019), a shiny, giant phallus with an illuminated rotating heart at its tip and a column with three jutting video screens. The final room, featuring the videos Wong Ping's Fables 1 (2018) and Wong Ping's Fables 2 (2019), is furnished with transparent inflatable seating that forms the artist's surname in Chinese characters. The space is overseen by the giant inflatable Rabbit 3 in 1 (2019), a character from his latest fable.

Articles about Wong Ping often mention the depravity of his themes. The artist maintains, however, that in the internet era, little remains that could still be considered taboo. Plus, he notes, while sex may be the "language" he uses, "it's not the message of the work." Arguably his underlying themes are not sex, or even pervasion, but rather a quest for belonging in today's world: How do we find acceptance and love with others and in ourselves? How do we negotiate loneliness and the isolation of urban life? How do we care for one another? And what beyond these truly existential questions could be more urgent and relevant today?

Ask him to describe his work, and Wong Ping will point you to his favorite song by The Velvet Underground. Its first lines, "I'll be your mirror / reflect what you are, in case you don't know," provide a telling clue to his animations and installations, which are an attempt to respond to our moment, using its own (digital) tools. The artist unravels some of the starkest realities of our own dark age with a touch as biting as it is compassionate and humorous. And if you think Wong Ping's films are twisted, they are—because the world is, too.

Frieze London

Booth 展位H09

Regent's Park, London, UK

Edouard Malingue Gallery (Hong Kong, Shanghai) was thrilled to launch its inaugural participation at Frieze London as part of the Focus section featuring celebrated emerging Hong Kong artist Wong Ping (b. 1984) presenting 'Fables', a single surreal animation in three parts exhibited within an immersive setting. On this occasion, Wong Ping was the recipient of the first Camden Arts Emerging Arts Prize at Frieze and will realise a major exhibition at Camden Arts Centre, London within the next 18 months. Garnering extensive critical attention, the booth reflected the cornerstones of Wong Ping's practice that combines the crass and the colourful to mount a critically humorous discourse around repressed sexuality, personal sentiments and political limitations.

Flashing, pop-like imagery; visual and auditory narrations; installations that extend into three dimensions the artist's fantastical animation world – these are elements of Wong Ping's practice that express his observations of society, from childhood to adulthood, using a visual language that sits on the border of shocking and amusing. As described by Xiaoyu Weng, associate curator for Chinese art at the Guggenheim in light of Wong Ping's recent group show 'One Hand Clapping' at the New York institution: "He acutely responds to his surroundings on a micro level but also speaks to the social and political reality" [1].

'Fables', in particular, comprises three back-to-back distinct animations, each of which presents, as the title suggests, a succinct fictional story with imaginary characters that communicates a 'moral' lesson. Unveiled for the first time at the 2018 New Museum Triennial as part of 'Songs for Sabotage', 'Fables' was cited as "one of the few pieces with obvious digital roots and with politics that feel as much existential as circumstantial" [2]. Jumping between the tales of a Buddhist nun elephant, social-media-addicted chicken and insect-phobic tree, 'Fables' touch upon issues of appearance, love, digital interaction, narcissism and fear.

Despite the vibrant and illogical superposition of narrators and events, the films address toils that affect each of our contemporary daily lives. The delivery is met, however, by "a profound sense of social awkwardness" [3], an interaction that at once arouses intrigue and discomfort. Presented at Frieze as the central projection lighting up a dark immersive space, visitors are lured into an encounter, one that is met and further activated by a sequence of three-dimensional vignettes from the animation hung on either flanking wall.

Ultimately, 'Fables' is a vivid, cynical and cuttngly wry source of insight into societal behaviour. Through the fantastical foil, the works cumulatively provide a liberating rawness and urge a cathartic twist on the trials rooted in daily life.

Camden Art Emerging Arts Prize at Frieze is a major new annual prize – launching for the first time at Frieze London 2018 – offering an emerging artist vital critical exposure through their first solo show at a London institution. The prize winner will be supported by the experienced Camden Arts Centre curatorial team, and the exhibition will be underpinned by an extensive programme of public talks and events.

《寓言》是以生動的形式對社會行為憤世嫉俗、尖銳諷刺的洞察。通過奇幻的表象,作品持續地展現自由奔放的粗獷質地,強烈地昇華根植於日常生活艱辛的宣洩。

One Hand Clapping
單手拍掌

Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York, USA
所羅門·R·古根海姆美術館, 紐約, 美國

04.05.2018 - 21.10.2018

The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum presents One Hand Clapping, a group exhibition of newly commissioned works by Cao Fei, Duan Jianyu, Lin Yilin, Wong Ping, and Samson Young. The exhibition is the third of The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Chinese Art Initiative, a research, curatorial, and collections-building program begun in 2013. On view from May 4 through October 21, 2018, One Hand Clapping will be accompanied by a catalogue and public and educational programming.

The artists in One Hand Clapping explore our changing relationship with the future. Produced in both new and traditional mediums—from virtual-reality technology to oil on canvas—their commissioned works challenge visions of a global, homogeneous, and technocratic future. On Tower Level 5, Wong Ping creates a multimedia installation centered on a colorful, racy animated tale that explores the tension between an aging population and the relentless pace of a digital economy; in her paintings and sculptures, Duan Jianyu depicts a surreal, transitory place where the rural meets the urban; and Lin Yilin constructs a virtual-reality simulation featuring a professional basketball star, testing the potential for using technology to inhabit the experience of another. On Tower Level 7, Cao Fei examines the new realities and potential crisis driven by automation and robotics at some of China's most advanced storage and distribution facilities, and Samson Young reflects on our obsession with ritual and authenticity through a sonic and sculptural environment of imaginary musical instruments and their digitally engineered sounds.

The exhibition title One Hand Clapping is derived from a koan-riddles used in Zen Buddhist practice to challenge logical reasoning—that asks, “We know the sound of two hands clapping. But what is the sound of one hand clapping?” Emerging from a tradition that originates in China's Tang period (618- 907), the phrase “one hand clapping” encompasses a history of cross-cultural translation and appropriation that continues into the present, from serving as the epigraph to J. D. Salinger's Nine Stories (1953) to being referenced in the titles of a Cantopop song and an Australian film and in the name of a British band. In this light, “one hand clapping” becomes a metaphor for the processes by which meaning is fabricated, transmitted, and restated in a globalized world. The image of “one hand clapping” also suggests connotations of solitude and the ability of artists to put forth a singular perspective and to challenge prevailing beliefs, stereotypes, and conventional power structures.

展覽主題「單手拍掌」來自於在禪修中挑戰理性思維限制的謎題：「吾人知悉二掌 相擊之聲，然則獨手拍之音又何若？」雖源自中國唐朝 (618 - 907)，短語「單手拍掌」在不同文化中不斷被翻譯和引用：從 J.D.賽林格 (J. D. Salinger 《九故事》(1953) 的到 90 年代林子祥的粵語專輯和單曲，再到澳大利亞電影以及一個英國樂隊的名稱，等等。至此，「單手拍掌」成爲一個跨國際的隱喻，其意義被誤讀，編造，傳播，並在一個全球化的世界中不斷重述。同時，「單手拍掌」的意象也令人聯想到「獨處」以及藝術家以個體觀點能挑戰主流，刻板印象和傳統權力的獨特能力。

2018 Triennial: Songs for Sabotage
2018三年展 - 「破壞之歌」

New Museum, New York, USA

Together, the artists in “Songs for Sabotage” propose a kind of propaganda, engaging with new and traditional media in order to reveal the built systems that construct our reality, images, and truths. The exhibition amounts to a call for action, an active engagement, and an interference in political and social structures, and brings together works across mediums by approximately thirty artists from nineteen countries, the majority of whom are exhibiting in the United States for the first time.

“Songs for Sabotage” explores interventions into cities, infrastructures, and the networks of everyday life, proposing objects that might create common experience. The exhibition takes as a given that these structures are linked to the entrenched powers of colonialism and institutionalized racism that magnify inequity. Through their distinct approaches, the artists in “Songs for Sabotage” offer models for dismantling and replacing the political and economic networks that envelop today’s global youth. Invoking the heightened role of identity in today’s culture, they take on the technological, economic, and material structures that stand in the way of collectivity.

These artists are further connected by both their deep engagements with the specificity of local context and a critical examination—and embrace—of the internationalism that links them. Their works range widely in medium and form, including painted allegories for the administration of power, sculptural proposals to renew (and destroy) monuments, and cinematic works that engage the modes of propaganda that influence us more and more each day. Viewed in ensemble, these works provide models for reflecting upon and working against a system that seems doomed to failure.

Flashing, pop-like imagery; visual and auditory narrations that explicitly touch upon sex, politics and social relations; vibrant installations that extend into three dimensions the artist's fantastical animation world – these are but cornerstones of Wong Ping's (b. 1984, Hong Kong) practice that combines the crass and the colourful to mount a discourse around repressed sexuality, personal sentiments and political limitations. Hong Kong born and raised, Wong Ping discusses his observations of society, from teenage to adulthood, using a visual language that sits on the border of shocking and amusing. Edouard Malingue Gallery is pleased to present 'Who's the Daddy', Wong Ping's second solo show in Hong Kong, featuring his new animation works which explore the trials and tribulations of parenthood. In addition to the central animation, after which the exhibition is titled, 'Who's the Daddy' features a second video presented on a notebook, as well as several sculpture works, extending the artist's visual world throughout the gallery space, immersing the viewer in his challenging fictional sequence.

Despite drawing its name and inspiration from a popular Chinese nursery rhyme, the playful imagery and comically-illustrated characters in 'Who's the Daddy' (2017) depict scenes with a much darker undertone than an initial glance might suggest. Introducing the tale of a disgraceful man who has unexpectedly stumbled across the path of child-rearing, Wong Ping's characteristically neon hues and explicit style explore the challenges of fatherhood. The futility of political identity is addressed throughout the film beginning with the protagonist's seemingly superficial comparison of sexuality to left/right-wing political dynamics. The viewer follows the man's dating app trial as he attempts to evaluate potential partner's political beliefs by analysing their profile photos. His eventual 'match' with a strictly religious woman, and their ensuing relationship, reveals the man's shameful satisfaction with subjugation, a fetish that is further explored by a juxtaposition of references to his childhood memories. Through a combination of the man's contemptible powerlessness and the woman's tenuous religious beliefs, the protagonist ultimately takes on the merciless role of a single father.

Extending throughout the exhibition space are a series of three-dimensional elements, born from Wong Ping's animated sequences. Segments of the films take the form of two sculptures, a hanging lightbox, a neon sign and two further 3D prints, bringing to physical life their characters and singular moments of their fictional lives. 'M' (2017), for example, illustrates a vicious scene from 'Who's the Daddy' where the woman, in an unmother-like manner, pushes the protagonist onto the floor, piercing his left eye-ball using her stilet-to heel with the intention of squashing shameful desire through punishment. The lightbox entitled 'Mammy' (2017) similarly addresses the film whilst focusing on the darker side of parenthood by presenting a confronting portrayal of traditional mother and child imagery, the baby hanging in her arms replete with dripping blood from the still-attached umbilical cord. The irrational nature of morality and the fragility of existence is further conveyed by the mother's abortion of her foetuses, an act that seems both cruel as well as a form of atonement.

Running throughout Wong Ping's animation work is the concept of control or limitation; introducing the poles of desire and obsession, 'Who's the Daddy' presents acts, visions and scenarios that are brutally honest, or indeed, compose our personal, 'evil' shame. Ultimately though, Wong Ping's animations are not meant to be discouraging. They are happy, in a darkly twisted yet realistic manner. Through their rawness, his works provide a sense of uncharacteristic comfort in that even our deepest and most private sentiments or acts are shared by others. In this way, Wong Ping's work is liberating and perversely honest – a cathartic twist on the trials rooted in daily life.

Hong Kong artist Wong Ping has been selected to present his animation film 'Jungle of Desire' (2015) in the Nova Sector. The short film tells the story of an impotent husband, unsatisfied wife and a megalomaniac policeman, illustrating the perfect ecosystem of the concrete jungle, where these characters are able to truly face their lust with no moral laws. Flashing, pop-like imagery; visual and auditory narrations that explicitly touch upon sex, politics and social relations; vibrant sculptures that extend into three dimensions the artist's fantastical animation world – these are but cornerstones of Wong Ping's practice that combines the crass and the colourful to mount a discourse around repressed sexuality, personal sentiments and political limitations.

POST PiXEL: Animamix Biennale 2015-2016
像素之後

City University of Hong Kong

22.03.2016 - 17.04.2016

Animamix Biennale showcases contemporary art under the influence of the unique aesthetics and culture of animation and comics. Co-organised by City University of Hong Kong and Hong Kong Visual Arts Centre as part of the 2015-16 edition, 'POST PiXEL' examines, within the curatorial vision "Directed Towards Knowledge", how 'pixels' transcend art creation beyond the realms of traditional forms and intellectual spheres.

On display is Wong Ping's video installation 'Super Epic Infinite-Wild-Quad-Extended-Ultra-Extreme-Clear-High-Definition Smart Television' (2016), which parodies the commercial repertoire of technological advancement and its ever-shifting paradigm. Presented as a pseudo-commodity that prides "deeper blacks, purer whites and hyperreal detail in every image and amazing smoothness in the coarsest scenes", the work plays with the notion of pixels as both fundamentals of digital imaging and caricatures of our contemporary experience in relation to the virtual world.

Things that can happen, Hong Kong

For the inaugural exhibition of 'Things that can happen', Wong Ping was invited to showcase a series of new short animations that delve into repressed sexuality and personal sentiments within Hong Kong's unsettling political atmosphere. Presented in a 'tong lau' residential unit, the literal, claustrophobic 'jungle of desire' illustrates "the perfect ecosystem of a concrete jungle: an impotent husband, an unsatisfied wife, and a megalomaniac policeman". Morals are suppressed and raise people's desires. The jungle is the only place where they can truly face their lust as there are no moral laws. It is inspired by true stories: prostitutes thrilled by the undercover police to provide free sexual service." Crossing humorous animation with sculpture, Wong addresses the junctures in human life, especially the daunting, personal topic of physical incapacity and how this impacts individual sexuality. Adding a literal angle to the topic of intimacy, his work also touches upon the theme's associations with power and gender roles.

“Jungle of Desire” - Wong Ping

by Simon Frank (Things that can happen, Hong Kong)

This essay was published in “ArtAsiaPacific” magazine. Published by ArtAsiaPacific. Date of Publication: 2015*

The first thing you notice when stepping into animator and artist Wong Ping’s solo exhibition “Jungle of Desire,” at the new Hong Kong art space Things That Can Happen, are the cats. Maneki-neko cat statues — the Japanese good-luck charms with a beckoning arm, frequently seen in shrines and restaurants around East Asia — crowd one corner of the gallery’s main room, arranged in a huddle on the floor and are even seen hiding in a sink incongruously installed in the space. In the context of multimedia art, the lucky cats initially bring to mind French filmmaker Chris Marker, who featured them heavily in his landmark essay - Im Sans Soleil (1983). But not everything is as it seems: on second glance, the cats’ moving arms, swinging back and forth, have been plastered over to resemble penises. The gesture is at once shocking and funny, like much of the personal universe Wong shares in “Jungle of Desire.” The Hong Kong artist, whose practice has often circled around themes of sex and obsession, was further inspired by the gallery’s surroundings in Sham Shui Po — a working class neighborhood in Kowloon, also known as the center for the local sex industry. At its best, “Jungle of Desire” humorously channels sexual frustration and the pressures of living in the big city, with a keen eye for the specificities of Hong Kong. Yet occasionally the exhibit struggles to move past its punchlines, with some pieces provoking a blush or giggle without making a deeper impression.

The focus of the main room is an animated short encapsulating Wong’s favorite themes. Rendered in a jerky, neon-bright Cubist style that characterizes his work, Wong’s video tells the story of an impotent animator whose wife starts working at home as a prostitute, partly to support her unemployed husband, and partly to satisfy herself sexually. In his narration, the animated protagonist explains that he tried to wait in parks and other public spaces while his wife saw customers, but that the city itself wouldn’t let him rest. At least at home there is air-conditioning and Wi-Fi, the husband drolly comments as the animation shows him crouched in a closet staring at his smartphone. These details, more than the mentioning of specific landmarks, felt genuinely rooted in Hong Kong life. When an undercover cop takes advantage of his power to enjoy the wife’s services for free, the video turns into a bizarre revenge fantasy, unravelling a sequence of events that also raises questions about the animator’s sexuality. Though filled with crude humor, the short animation touches upon important themes, challenging sexual norms and lamenting the trials of life in a cramped city.

A similar synthesis of the crass and thoughtful is present in a neon sign displayed in a side room of the gallery. Multicolored lights form the outline of a seated man, who incongruously has pig’s trotters for feet, and whose penis is rendered as a palm tree, apparently providing some shade. It is ridiculous—and yet the illumination evokes Hong Kong’s iconic, and increasingly disappearing, neon signs as well as the bare fluorescent lights that advertise massage parlors. The installation brings to the surface questions about gentrification and urban change in Sham Shui Po, and Hong Kong in general, while simultaneously parodying images of masculine power.

However, the two animations shown on a pair of small analog televisions that frame the neon sign appear less thought through as an artwork. Showing muscular male figures, with exaggerated genitals and breasts, clumsily running around, the videos suggest a commentary on gender distinctions. Yet the Mounty Python-esque soundtrack of oohs-and-ahs in the background makes it difficult to read much further into the animations. Similarly, an installation in another room uses a fan, kite and some string to move a sex toy attached to a TV screen displaying a nude torso. Though the work’s DIY approach to kinetic sculpture is clever and more than a little funny, it is hard to read its significance beyond juvenile humor.

In “Jungle of Desire,” Wong fully engages with the gallery’s setting in the midst of Sham Shui Po’s sex industry by crafting each work specifically for the show and its environment. However, the decision to leave pieces untitled, except as constitutive parts of the exhibition, gives the impression that some works received less creative attention than others. In his most developed pieces, Wong adeptly captures Hong Kong’s illicit side and the fantasies it evokes, but other times his works unfortunately get stuck on one-note jokes.

Mobile M+: Moving Images
M+進行: 流動的影像

West Kowloon Cultural District, Hong Kong
西九文化區, 香港

Inspired by the multiple connotations of the word 'moving' and the rise of diasporic cinema internationally, M+'s inaugural project 'Mobile M+: Moving Images' takes Hong Kong's acclaimed 'migratory cinema' from the 80s and 90s as a starting point to consider how conditions of contemporary migration and displacement are expressed, imagined and represented through mediated images.

Commissioned for the exhibition, Wong Ping's 'The Other Side' uses the metaphor of birth to depict the process of immigration (or emigration): a daunting and disorienting experience that is nonetheless imbued with hope. Combining footage shot by the artist with his delightful animation work, the synchronised dual-channel videos are connected through a voiceover. The result is a subtle depiction of key junctures in human life.
